A Challenge Accepted.

For a man who understands the dark, mysterious ways of the Heathen Chinese, commend us to Joe Garretson our astute and energetic assessor. Yesterday morning Joe went for John to collect poll taxes, but that ubiquitous cuss was like an ignis fatuus. When the Assessor would go where he was he wasn't there. In the afternoon Joe provided himself with his receipt book, and taking Deputy Marshal Rece and Constable Rosenberg, he went for the China houses scriatim. Placing Reece at one door and Rosenberg at the other, the Assessor would go in and make the Mongols shell out. In the first house he entered he found the Johns armed with poll-tax receipts from San Francisco; so he marked them and went to the next. Strange

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

In San Francisco yesterday the thermom ter touched 950 in the shade, which the records show to have been the hotlest weather ever felt in that city.

There are 13 Chinese lepers in the San Francisco pest house. Within the past four weeks 20,000 people have been vaccinated free in San Francisco. The St. Augustine Church, in Washington, built by and for colored Catholics, was solemnly dedicated last Sunday by Archbishop Bayley.

Speaker Kerr is rapidly recovering. The House has passed the joint resolution to modify the treaty with Cnina to restrict immigration. The Times' Washington Special says that Blaine on Monday received a letter informing him that his friend A. Rockwood Hoar, who has been one of his warm supporters, had decided to oppose his nomination for Presi-

E. P. Hingston, an Enghishman, an essayist, and the author of a life of Artemus Ward, died on Friday.

A dispatch from Cadiz to the Times says that the estimate limiting the Spanish army to 100,000 men does not include the soldiers sent to Cuba.

A telegram from Paris says that the Turkish corps of observation on the Servian frontier has been ordered to withdraw.

ADMINISTRATION journals insist that in the case of Secretary Don CAMERON the scriptural assurance that the sins of the father shall descend to the son is not true, and the Don is therefore a thing never before known in the CAMERON family-an honest man.

REPUBLICAN leaders say they hope TILDEN will be the nominee of the St. Louis Convention. This is too thin to be effective. Democrats say the same thing of BLAINE, yet both sides know TILDEN and BLAINE are the strongest men that could be nominated.

Now of subsidy itself: We given to it by Moses, if not to destroy are opposed to it on principle. It is a process for taxing the public for the benefit of private individuals. It absorbs much and returns little; it takes from the many and gives to the few; it imposes a sore tax and promises but an inadequate reward; it oppresses the living and is a stumbling block in the pathway of those that come hereafter. It is a species of wealth centralization which, if indulged in to a too great extent, creates slaves of the many and makes masters of the few; it is almost an immediate outlay for a far distant and long coming return; it in civil affairs. is a system of taxation that has become odious and will no longer be endured. If the demand of the Express was submitted to our people it would receive an emphatic refusal from ninety-nine out of every one hundred voters who own one thousand dollars' worth of property. The stock bait held out by the Express will not secure a nibble. The people are not gudgeons. They do not need to be told that a million dollars' worth of stock would give them no control in the management or disposition of the road. They would be stockholders until they were sold out, but at no time would they be controllers. This is the matter in a nutshell, and we unhesitatingly assert that a journal that asks a community as well provided with railroads as ours now is, to burden itself with a million dollar subsidy debt, is inimical to the country, an enemy to the people and a dan-

The priestly intolerance and interferance only men who can beat Seymour in New York is Conkling, and there are many Democrats who will vote for Conkling if the Democrats nominate anybody else than Seymour. The indications are that Pennsylvania will name the candidate. If Hartranft cannot win, either Blaine, Conkling or Morton are waiting till Pennsylvania adds her strength and can give one of them the majority. The Bristow force are not making a sensational fight. They are working through circulars and addresses, with which they flood all incoming trains and public buildings here. The Mortonites are working under the surface and are very strong. The Conklingites appear to eye and ear continually with placards, processions and bands. The Blaine forces are making a square, open fight on the merits of the case, and work with the enthusiasm of superior numbers and the triumphant spirit of the North-west is telling palpably. The Bristow element from Chicago formed with that from Cincinnati and reinforced by that from Kentucky are working with unanimity and confidence. Chicago will put a strong Blaine guard in the field. A special train of five carloads comes down to-day and its composition will be a surprise to the friends of the other candidates. It numbers many prominent men who were not hitherto counted on.

CINCINNATI, June 13, evening.-All the delegations have been hard at work to-day in the interest of either preferences. Posters headed, "The Coming Man, James G. Blaine," and containing extracts from his speeches are conspicuously posted throughout the city. A meeting of his friends is to be held in front of the Burnett House to-night.

The crowning glory of a man is a good hat. It is the distinctive mark of a gentleman. No matter if his clothes are threadbare, if he has a stylish hat; people don't look at anything else; in fact, it not only covers his head but the defects of all sorts which would become visible were his hat not perfect. Desmond has the most stylish and perfect articles at his store on Main street, in Temple Block, that can be made.

Johnson's Anodyne Liniment may be used to advantage where any Liniment is desirable. In cases of severe cramps and pains in the stomach it is undoubtedly the best article that can be used internally. Petrovits' Studio.

We yesterday paid a visit to the studio of the artist Petrovits at the Pico House. We had heard much of this gentleman's work but were hardly prepared for the galaxy of beauty on convass which was there displayed. Mr. Petrovtis as a portrait painter is entitled to rank with the best in the land. His productions have a certain fineness of touch and fidelity in coloring which is rarely seen. A portrait of an East Indian physician which Mr. Petrovits painted some years ago study for any art critic. The portrait of Don Pio Pico as the representative of another nationality holds a prominent place in the collection. The large family group being painted for Mayor Beaudry is still in its incipiency but already shows the magnitude of the undertaking. The figures are grouped and the faces well outlined which form perhaps the most difficult part to be performed. Any person with a taste for fine art will be amply repaid for a visit to Mr. Petrovits'

THE ORIGINAL SHEEP PASTURE Of a year ago. Why the company pursue such a short-sighted policy is a wonder to many. The result is that the sale of lots by the company has entirely ceased, and many lots are for sale at less than the company price.
The company's advertisement reads,
"Water in abundance everywhere."
Yes, we have the San Vicente spring water in abundance, and it is now running direct from the springs into the pipes, fresh and pure, and if it was only running through our streets in pipes instead of being hauled around in dirty water tanks we in town could not complain; but in the villa farm tract adjoining town water has not been obtained in a well now down one hundred and ten feet, and the whole villa farm tract, which the company holds at one hundred dollars per acre, is dear land at forty dollars per acre. If the company will only sell their land at its value, and put water pipes through the streets, we can afford to wait awhile for our railroad to the East; but under the present management many have become discouraged and left town, and many more are In large tracts.
